

Salem Pioneer Cemetery

(aka- Rural, I.O.O.F.) Salem, Oregon

Salem Pioneer Cemetery is located at the corner of Hoyt and Commercial Streets in South Salem. The land on which the cemetery is located was originally part of the Reverend David Leslie land claim and was set aside by him for family burials in 1841. Reverend Leslie was one of the Methodist Missionaries sent to the Willamette Valley along with Reverend Jason Lee.

Seeley, Aileen
LAST: Seeley		FIRST: Aileen	MID:
GENDER: F	MAIDEN NAME:		TITLE:
BORN: Abt Jun 1901	DIED: 21 Sep 1901	BURIED: 22 Sep 1901
ETHNIC:		OCCUPATION: Infant
BIRTH PLACE : Salem, Oregon
DEATH PLACE: Salem, Marion Co., Oregon
NOTES: IOOF - Aileen [sic] Seely, female, age 3 m's 21 days, born in Salem, died in S. Salem, daughter of Prof. &amp; Francisco Seeley;
OBITUARY: SEELEY - At the family residence in South Salem, Oregon, Saturday September 21, 1901, Aileen, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Francesco Seley [sic], aged 3 months and 21 days. Oregon Statesman 22 September 1901 6:5
SOURCES: IOOF Register of Burials Rigdon #18 OS 22 September 1901 6:5
IMAGE 1:		IMAGE 2:
LOT: 076	SPACE:	LONG:	LAT: