

Salem Pioneer Cemetery

(aka- Rural. I.O.O.F.) Salem, Oregon

Salem Pioneer Cemetery is located at the corner of Hoyt and Commercial Streets in South Salem. The land on which the cemetery is located was originally part of the Reverend David Leslie land claim and was set aside by him for family burials in 1841. Reverend Leslie was one of the Methodist Missionaries sent to the Willamette Valley along with Reverend Jason Lee.

Seeley, Irving C.

LAST: Seeley FIRST: Irving MID: C.

GENDER: M MAIDEN NAME: TITLE:

BORN: 6 Jan 1944 DIED: 6 Jan 1944 BURIED: 10 Jan 1944

ETHNIC: OCCUPATION: Infant

BIRTH PLACE : Salem, Marion Co., Oregon

DEATH PLACE: Salem, Marion Co., Oregon

NOTES:

OSBH DC (Marion County) #28 - Irving C. Seeley, male, infant, b. 6 Jan 1944 in Salem Oregon, d. 6 Jan 1944 in Salem, Oregon at the age of 9 hrs 39 min., name of father Irving Seeley (b. Pueblo, Colo.), maiden name of mother Gladys Lou Benton (b. Lexington, Mo.), interment 10 Jan, undertaker Barrick, informant Hospital records.

OBITUARY:

At a local hospital, January 6, infant son of Mr. & Mrs. Irving Seeley of 637 Piedmont street. Interment in IOOF cemetery Monday, January 10. Oregon Statesman 9 Jan 1944 6:2

SOURCES:

LR
OSBH DC (Marion County) #28
OS 9 Jan 1944 6:2

IMAGE 1: IMAGE 2:

LOT: 791 SPACE: W End LONG: LAT: